Provided that the fee payable for restoration in the register after voluntary removal there from shall be one half of the said fee of rupees five.

(2) Any nurse or midwife registered in Part B of the register of Nurses or Midwives who applies to the Registrar for admission in Part A of such register shall pay a fee of rupees five.

(3) Any nurse or midwives who applies to the Registrar for the entry of any additional qualification against his name in any register shall pay a fee of rupees five for such entry in such register.

66. In the event of a certificate of registration being lost or accidentally destroyed the holder may apply to the Registrar for a fresh certificate and the council may if they think fit, order the grant of a fresh certificate upon payment by the applicant of a fee of rupees five. A certificate issued under this rule shall be marked "Duplicate".

67. The holder of a certificate of registration desiring a change of name may apply to the Council for a fresh certificate and the council may, if it thinks fit, order the grant of a fresh certificate to the applicant on his surrender of the old certificate and on payment of a fee of rupees five.

68. Any person shall be entitled upon payment to the Registrar of a fee of rupee two along with an application to be furnished with a certificate under the seal of the Council certifying that on a specified date or during a specified period the name of any nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai is or was, or is not or is not or was not in the register.

Refusal to register and Removal of name from and Restoration of name to the Register.

69. The Council may, refuse to register, or remove from the register permanently or for a specified time in the name of a nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai.

(a) for any offence committed by him including a breach of any regulation which provided that such breach shall be deemed to be an offence for the purpose of this rule; or

(b) for professional incompetence negligence or contravention of methods ordinarily invoked in the course of training of nurses, midwives, auxiliary nurse-midwives or health visitors; or
(c) if he has been sentenced by any criminal court for any offence involving moral turpitude such sentence not having been reversed and a period of three years has not elapsed from the date of the expiration of the sentence.
70. Whenever information is received that a candidate for registration as a nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwives, health visitor or dhai or a registered nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai has been censured by any judicial or other competent authority in relation to his professional character or has been guilty of any misconduct, the Registrar, after making enquiries relating thereto, shall lay the matter before the President.
71. The President may thereupon cause a written explanation to be called for from the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai, as the case may be. If the president is satisfied that a Prima facies case has been made out against the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai, as the case may be, he may himself proceed with further investigation and take further evidence, taking, if necessary, the advice and assistance of a legal practitioner, or he may appoint a committee of the members of the Council to make such further investigation and take such further evidence as may be necessary.
72. When the President or the Committee, as the case may be considers that a case for further enquiry has not been made on, the President or the committee may decline to proceed with the matter and shall report their action to the Council at its next ordinary meeting.
73. When the president or the committee as the case may be considers that a case for further enquiry has been made out the Registrar, shall sent by registered post to the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor, or dhai a notice in writing in form IX in Appendix II specifying the nature and particulars of the charge against him and informing him of the time and date and place of the meeting at which the case will be heard by the Council and requiring him to send or deliver to the Registrar his certificate and badge; if any, not later than the date on which the hearing takes place. Such notice shall be sent in the address of the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai as given by him in his application on entered in the register or if the Registrar has reason to believe that; the address has been subsequently changed, then in the last known address of such nurse, midwives, auxiliary nurse-midwives, health visitor or dhai as the case may be. Such notice shall be sent at least fifteen days before the date fixed for heating by registered post with acknowledgement due.
74. The case shall be heard at a meeting of the Council, of which at least seven days' notice shall be given by the Registrar to each member of the Council and the nurse, the midwife, the auxiliary nurse-midwife, the health visitor or the dhai, as the case may be, shall be entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner. If the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai intends to be represented by a legal practitioner, not less than seven days' notice of such intention shall be given to the Registrar.
75. At the hearing, the Registrar or other person appointed by the Council for the purpose shall first state to the Council the facts of the case and the charge made against the nurse, midwife, the auxiliary nurse-midwife, the health visitor or dhai, and shall then submit to the Council the evidence, received in support of the charge and the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai, or his representative shall be invited by the President to address the Council and to tender evidence in answer to the charge and the Registrar or other person appointed by the council for the purpose shall be entitled to cross-examine any witness on any evidence tendered in answer to the charge and to reply on the whole case after the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai or his representative has replied. The nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai shall also be entitled to cross-examine any witness produced in support to the charge in the same way as the Registrar or other person appointed by the Council is entitled to cross-examine a witness produced by the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai.

76. If the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai, as the case may be does not attend either in person or by a representative, the Council may proceed to hear and determine the case in his absence; or if satisfied with the validity of the grounds of his absence, may postpone the hearing to a later date.

77. Upon the conclusion of the case, the council shall after considering the evidence, whether oral or documentary, pronounce its decision forthwith or on a later date in writing or at a subsequent meeting.

78. If the Council finds the charge against the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai to be proved either wholly or in part, it may refuse to include his name in the register or may remove his name from the register permanently or for such period as it thinks fit.

79. The Registrar shall forthwith communicate the decision of the Council to the nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai, as the case may be, by registered letter with acknowledgement due addressed to the last known address of such person.

80. In the case of the temporary removal of such name from the register, the Registrar shall delete the name from the register on which it is included, and during the period of such temporary removal shall retain with him the certificate and badge, if any. In the case of permanent removal, the Registrar shall delete the name of such person from the register in which it is included and cancel the certificate and retain the badge, if any

81. (1) A nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai may apply for removal of his name from the register. Every such application shall bear evidence that it is being made at the applicant's own request and free will and shall be signed by the applicant and being accompanied by a declaration made by the applicant in the presence of two witnesses who shall be either First Class Magistrates or Gazetted Officers or qualified registered Medical Practitioners and who are willing to identify the applicant and to give evidence as to his character and who shall state explicitly whether or not they are aware of any proceedings which might result in establishing any cause for the removal of the applicant's name from the register without his consent or of depriving him without his consent of any qualification or diploma or certificate he may be holding which entitled him to be registered under these rules. Every such application shall also be accompanied by the certificate of registration and badge, if any, of the applicant.

(2) The Registrar shall bring such application together with the documents in support thereof to the next meeting of the Council, at which the application and any objection there to shall be considered. The Council shall then consider whether there is any valid objection to such removal and if it finds no valid objection thereto shall remove the applicant's name from the register.

(3) The Registrar shall, upon the removal of the applicant's name from the register send notice of such removal to the applicant by registered letter addressed to his last known address.

82. (1) When the name of a nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai has been removed from the Register temporarily for a specified period under the foregoing rules, any application for the restoration of the name of such nurse, midwife, auxiliary nurse-midwife, health visitor or dhai before or after the expiry of the term of any temporary removal shall be made in writing addressed to the Registrar and signed by the applicant stating the grounds on which the application is made.

(2) The application shall contain the names and addresses of two or more persons, of whom two shall be either First Class Magistrates, or Gazetted Officers or qualified registered medical practitioners or registered nurses, registered midwives, registered auxiliary nurse-midwives or registered health visitors able and willing to identify the applicant and to give evidence as to his character and the nature of his employment, both before and since the date of the removal of his name from the register and such other information as may be required.

(3) The Council may require the applicant to verify by an affidavit or declaration on oath before a First Class Magistrate, the statement made in his application or any further statements which it thinks necessary and may, if it thinks fit, require the applicant to attend in person at a meeting of the council at which the matter is to be considered.

(4) If upon consideration of the application and of the evidence furnished in support of it, the Council is satisfied that the name of the applicant should be restored to the register, it may direct the Registrar accordingly and upon payment by the applicant of the prescribed fee his name shall be restored to the register and his certificate together with a badge if any, shall be returned to him. The Registrar shall note in the certificate, the dates of removal and re-entry and the section under which the removal has been made.

Recognition of institutions for training Nurses, Midwives, Auxiliary Nurse-Midwives, Health visitors

83. (1) The Council shall from time to time, approve and recognize institutions which in its opinion are competent to train nurses, midwives, auxiliary nurse-midwives, health visitors and to grant degrees, diplomas, or certificate to them for the purpose of admission to the register under these rules and report the fact to the Government.

(2) For purposes of recognition of a training institution under sub-rule (1) the institutions should satisfy the conditions specified in the regulations made by the council under section 36 for training and examination of nurses, midwives, auxiliary nurse-midwives and health visitors.

(3) Every training institution shall provide full facilities for inspection by the representative of the Council if and when so directed by the council.

(4) Every training institution that seeks recognition by the Council shall furnish in advance a sum of one hundred rupees per member of the Inspection Commission for every inspection. This amount shall be remitted to the Registrar in cash before the sending of such commission.

Withdrawal of approval and recognition of institution

84. If on the report of its representative, the Council is of opinion that the training in an approved and recognised institution is not being properly carried on or that the authorities of the institutions have not carried out the directions and the suggestions, if any, of the Council or in the opinion of the Council the institution is not fit to be continued as a recognised one, the Council may withdraw its recognition and report the fact to the Government. Such institution shall not be approved and recognised again unless and until the Council is satisfied that the training at such institution will be properly carried on in future. The order of withdrawal shall be served by registered post.

Fee to be paid in respect of appeals

85. (a) The fee to be paid in respect of an appeal under section 24 shall be Rupees ten.

(b) The fee to be paid in respect of an appeal under section 27 shall be Rupees fifty.

(c) The Government shall have power to call for such documentary or oral evidence as may be considered necessary by them for the purpose of deciding the appeal.

(d) The date fixed for hearing of the appeal by the Government shall be intimated to the appellant and the Council. The appellant shall also be allowed, if he so chooses, to represent his case before the Government either by himself or by his advocate. The Council shall also be allowed to represent themselves before the Government either by the President or a representative of the Council of the Registrar, with the legal advisor, if any, of the Council.
